Sinte Debts-Electro-Magnetic Telegraphs -John Tyler-Webster, &c. &c. Correspondence of The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, December 29, 1842. In the House of Representatives to-day, Mr. Cooper of Pa., on leave, presented a memorial from Adams County, Pa., in favor of the plan of Mr. W. Cost Johnson to aid the States.

Mr. Johnson appealed to the House to suffer the appointment of a Select Committee on this subject.

Mr. CAVE JOHNSON moved to lay the whole subject on the table : rejected, without a division. The motion of Mr. Cost Johnson was then carried: Ayes 77; Noes 68-and thus a Select Committee (of nine, of which Mr. J. of course will be Chairman) is ordered to be appointed. Mr. Cushing moved the printing of the report of the Commissioners for the survey of the Boun-

The motion was carried.

Mr. EVERETT, on leave, presented a petition of about fifty-seven (Whig) members of the New-Hampshire Legislature, stating that the majority of that Legislature had refused to district the State of New-Hampshire according to the Apportionment Act, and asking Congress to divide the State into four Congressional districts. The memorial was referred to the Committee of the Whole on the Union.

Reports from Committees being in order during the morning hour, were called for.

Mr. FERRIS, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill making an appropriation to test the practicability of establishing a system of Electro-Megnetic telegraphs by the U. States; referred to the Committee of the Whole. Other unimportant reports were made.

The bill for the repeal of the Bankrupt Law came up-the question pending on the amendment of Mr. CAVE JOHNSON to the motion of Mr. BRIGGS to commit, instructing the Committee to report a bill for the unconditional repeal at two o'clock to-morrow. Mr. WISE spoke in defence of Mr. Cushing.

Mr. W. had not concluded when the hour expired. A motion was made to give him another hour and rejected; Yeas 100, Nays 30. Mr. FESSENDEN of Me. made an able speech against the repeal of the bill and in reply to Mr. Cushing. Mr. MARSHALL obtained the floor and the House adjourned. In SENATE, to-day, petitions numerously signed, were presented by Messrs. Tallmadge, Crittenden, Crafts, Porter, Berrien, Wood-BRIDGE and WHITE, against the repeal of the Bankrupt Act, and in favor of its repeal by Mr.

BUCHANAN.

The bill allowing a compensation to pension agents was ordered engrossed. Several private bills were passed.

The bill allowing draw-backs on merchandise exported in original packages to Chihuahua and Santa Fe, in Mexico, was passed, And the Senate adjourned.

Things in Philadelphia. Correspondence of The Tribune PHILADELPHIA, Dec 30, 1842-P. M.

About 3 o'clock P. M. an important arrest was made by officer Bowyer of New-York, assisted by officer Young, of this city, immediately is front of the U. S. Hotel, Chestnut street, in the person of a young man named Charles Maltson or Maliser, charged with the perpetration of a burg lary in your city. A desperate struggle ensued between the prisoner and Mr. Bowyer, the former drawing a pistol, which, providentially, was rescued, when upon examination it was found to be heavily loaded. Maltson was then ironed and conveyed before Recorder Vaux, who committed him upon the presentation of officer B.'s precept of the charge against him in your city, in default of $5,000 bail. FATHER OSWALD;" a genuine Catholic Story Casserly & San, 108 Nassau-street.

This neat and well printed volume has been just issued by our neighbors, the Catholic Booksellers. It is an elaborately written and argumentative production, and is brought out as a complete answer to that able work long known under the name of "Father Clement." In no section of this vast Republic, has the latter been unread; we trust the answer will meet a circulation as extensive as truth and justice demand. Let us by all means hear both sides, and then judge for ourselves. "Fair play is bonnie play." Go then and read "Father Oswald." Those wishing to make suitable Holy day presents can have copies elegantly bound in Turkey merocco, &c. &c.

A CARELESSNESS .- A trench which had been opened in Ann-street in front of Applegate's office was left last night without lamp or barricade, save the dirt thrown out of it. It was about five feet deep and extended across the street from one sidewalk to within a foot or two of the other. A prettier trap could not well have been arranged, and it was successful, for about 7 o'clock a horse attached to a sleigh was driven into it. After an hour's labor the horse was gotten out much injured. The person who was in the sleigh, with the assistance of others, went to work immediately and filled the trench up that no more necks should be placed in jeopardy. That some one has been very careless in this matter is evident.

Commercial and Money Matters. FRIDAY P. M. There was very litle done in Bank or Road Stocks excepting Long Island, of which 700 shares were sold at yesterday's prices. Ohio Sixes, of which some 25,000 were sold, declined again I per cent and offered freely at that. Sterling Exchange is not so firm and we quote 51 a6;

Francs, 5 45 a 5 432. No change in Inland Bills. Alabama, 94 a 10.

The Lewis Co. Bank will resume on Tuesday next provided the arrangement don't break down. We don't like to be positive in any statement in regard to this Bank. It is understood the difficulty with the Commercial Bank of Albany, which the Lewis Co. owes $20,000, has been arranged. The notes of the Housatonic Railroad have improved ten per cent within a month, ascribed to the demand created for them by the increased winter travel over this road. They are now 15 per cent discount.

The following are the amounts insured on the property destroyed by the fire last night in Water-st.

NEW-YEAR'S DAY-PRESENTS-STORES, &c .- Seldom i ever have we seen our Fancy Stores, even at this Holyday season of the year, presented a more attractive appearance than at the present time. Annuals and Books .- Appleton & Co. 200 Breadway, have the most magnificent assortment of elegantly bound standard, and fancy, and fashionable Books which can be found in any one store in America. Wiley & Putnam, 161 Broadway, have a full supply of splendidly bound Annuals, London Bibles, and other appropriate Books for the season. Langleys, 57 Chatham-street, have also a full assortment. Redfield, Clinton Hall, has a very select assortment of standard and fancy Books, as well as a variety of juvenile works. Abraham Maze, 277 Bleecker-street, has also a choice collection of beautiful works, very suitable for presents to Ladies.

FANCY Goods .- Tiffuny, Young & Ellis, 259 and 261 Broadway, have a store filled with all manner of beautiful ancy goods. A gestleman recently returned from Europe told us the other day that there was no store in London or Paris where could be found such an extensive assortment of fine fancy goods as in this.

NEW-YEAR'S CAKES .- Kelley, 94 Fulton-st, has Sponge Cake, Piam Cake, Scotch Cake, and all other kinds of Cake, which he makes up from the best materials found in the land. Mrs. Bennett & Son, 171 Grand-street, have plenty of Cakes, Kisses and Ladies Pingers, besides the Mammot New-Year's Cake, which actually weighs upwards of a quarter of a ton. At Ward's Bakery, 219 Fulton-street, you on get any thing in the line. See his scale of prices in an other column. Kance, corner of Beekman and Cliff-street. sign of the Golden Sheat, has an extensive supply of all kinds, made from the best of Flour and Butter. See his own statement in another column. The Knickerbocker Bakery of Humbert, 23 James-st, has been so long favorably known to the public that it requires no recommendation at our hands. We will only say, give Mr. Humbert a call-he is a clever fellow, and makes good cakes. Sneckner, 210 Bowery, has great rarity, and they are very orgamental. His great ow room for exhibition will be open on Monday. Mrs. Fitch, 173 Walker-street, has prepared for an extensive business, and her Cakes, Dough-nuts, Crolers and Kisses are all held in high estimation Gassner & Young, 132 Chatham, have a little of every thing that is wanted on the New Year's table. Just read beir advertisement, and if you are too much of a temperance man to buy their Sherry, Port, or Muscat, you will find that you can be accommodated with lemons, grape and Saratoga water.

R. L. & A. Stewart, corner of Greenwich and Chambers streets, are the princes of the candy business. Collamore, 601 Broadway, will supply you with appropriate china and glass. Spencer, 245 Broadway, or Fish, 137 Broadway, will furnish you with a good hat. Booth, 142 Fulton, or Jennings, 229 Broadway, will readily fit you out with coats, cloaks, and so forth. And at the beautiful store of Couthony y Nevers, 341 Broadway, you will find lamps and ornaments well worthy of your attention. McAllister, 160 Division street, has the right kind of oil for the aforesaid lamps, and for lamps of all kinds. Mr. Decker, in Ann-street, has the finest of oysters, and is fully prepared to supply families and parties in any quantity. We must not omit mentioning the fact that Andrew C. Wheeler, at the Fulton Market, will this day commence serving out to the citizens the surloins and steaks of the beautiful Onondaga ox, said to be one of the finest, as it was certainly the largest, ever raised in this country.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—The amount of suffering relieved by this invaluable preparation is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Thousands have been restored to bealth by its healing and regenerating efficacy, who were considered past the reach of remedial means, as various cer-tificates heretofore published abundantly prove. It has received the entire approbation of many practitioners in this and other cities, and its rapid growth in the estimation of the public has placed it beyond the reach of detraction of the efforts of competition. Diseases which arise from impurity of the blood or vitiation of the humors generally, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Rheumatism and incipient Gout, Salt Rheum and other cataneous diseases, Fever Sores, Internal Abscesses. Fistolas, Chronic Catarrh, Ucharity of the Throat and Nostrik painful affections of the ation of the Throat and Nostrils, painful affections of the Bones, chronic Inflammation of the Kidneys, Female De-rangements, general debility and prostration of the system, are all removed by its use. For particulars see advertisements in this and other city papers.
